

courtesy photo

Easy does it...

Matt Wilhelm, a 3-time X Games Medalist, 2-Time National Champion, jumped over two teachers, Mr. Mangano and Mrs. Pereida at Lincoln School last week. Wilhelm performed BMX bike tricks for the students, while delivering messages about perseverance, bullying and bicycle safety. See more photos inside.

ADDISON — Lincoln School students participated in a school assembly on Thursday to celebrate the students' work through PBIS (Positive Behavior Intervention Supports) to maintain a safe, respectful, and responsible school atmosphere. The program was presented by Matt Wilhelm, a 3-time X Games Medalist, 2-Time National Champion, winner of FOX TV's "30 Seconds to Fame", and semi-finalist on "America's Got Talent." Wilhelm performed BMX bike tricks for the students, while delivering messages about perseverance, bullying and bicycle safety.

Wilhelm shows students the medals that he has earned.

Wilhelm chose volunteers to try a basic bicycle trick.

Students are amazed by a variety of bike stunts.