Ardmore's cake auction raises $600 for books

This Ardmore student checked out all the storybook cakes on display at Ardmore School's "Story Night and Cake Auction." Staff members decorated cakes matched to popular children's books, such as "Larry & Elizabeth," "Where the Wild Things Are," and "A Bad Case of the Stripes." Visitors were able to bid on their favorite cakes, which went home with the highest bidders. The school raised more than $600 to buy books for the school library.
