

Marine visits his alma mater, Fullerton

Students at Fullerton School had the opportunity to visit with a Fullerton alum, Michael Marisie, who is a Marine. Marisie visited nine classrooms, sharing information about the work he does in the military and answering student questions. As part of a Veteran's Day lesson, students in Mrs. Mullins' and Mr. Wojtas' classes had written letters to Marisie in November. Mrs. Mullins was Mike's teacher when he was a 2nd grader at Fullerton! Students from other classrooms also participated in the Veteran's Day project by writing letters to other Fullerton alumni who are currently serving in the military.

all photos provided
Marisie spoke to Fullerton students about the work he does in the military and answered their questions.

Students in Mr. Wojtas's class had written letters to Marisie last November as a Veteran's Day lesson.

Marisie visited the students in the classroom of Mrs. Mullins, who had been his teacher when he was a second grader at Fullerton.