

Lake Park School holds first-ever Dance-Off

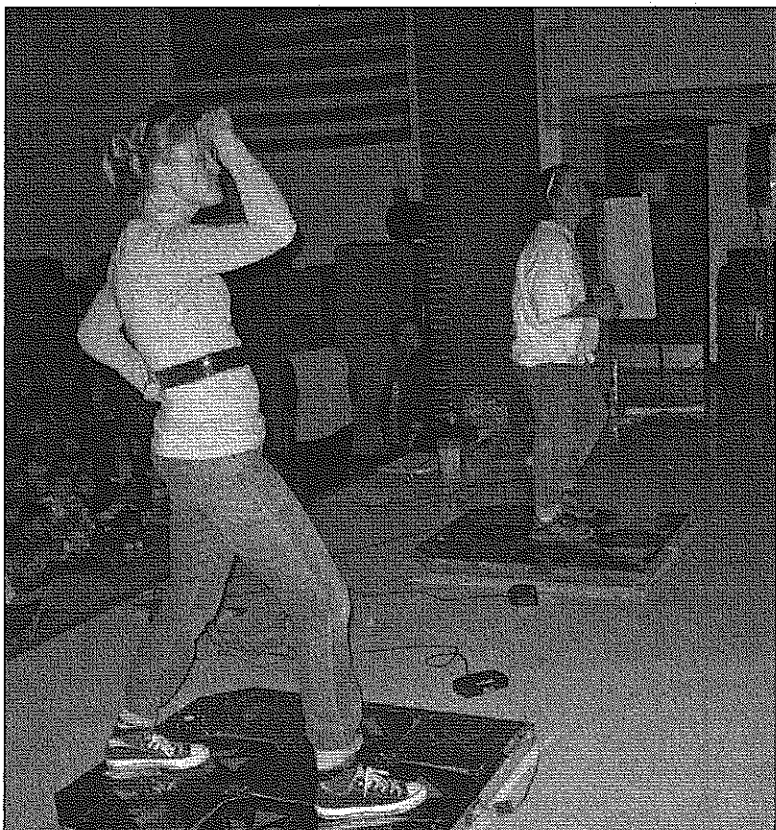

ADDISON — At Lake Park School, students participated in another PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions & Support) celebration on Friday afternoon, April 8. To celebrate the safe, respectful and responsible behavior exhibited by students in the lunchroom, the school held its First-Ever All-School Dance Off, where representatives of each classroom competed. While their classroom representative competed on stage, classrooms had the chance to dance along in the aisles.
