

Dist. 4 worker honored by INSPRA

ADDISON — Maureen Hansen, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent and Secretary to the Board of Education of Addison School District 4 recently was honored with a Distinguished Service Award of Excellence by the Illinois Chapter of the National School Public Relations Association (INSPRA). Hansen was recognized in the Support Staff category for her outstanding efforts during the 23 years she has spent in District 4 as a health aide, clerk, curriculum secretary, school secretary and superintendent's secretary. Hansen has exemplified excellence in the positions she has held while supporting and improving understanding and communication in the district, fostering cooperative partnerships between school and community, and strengthening stakeholder support for education in Addison.

Hansen received her award at INSPRA's awards luncheon on Friday, May 6, at the Park Ridge Country Club, located at 636 North Prospect Avenue in Park Ridge, IL. The Distinguished Service Awards were presented by INSPRA President Bridget McGuigan; Dick Johnson, NBC 5 Reporter & Anchor, served as the Master of Ceremonies.

photo provided

Hansen honored for distinguished service

Dist. 4 Superintendent secretary Maureen Hansen is pictured here with Superintendent John Langton after receiving an honor for distinguished service from INSPRA.