

photo provided

Wesley School holds annual sock hop

These three Wesley School students donned their socks and joined other students and staff who danced the night away at the school's annual Sock Hop. Principal Bob Langman was the DJ for the event, where students and teachers had a great time dancing, snacking and showing off their unique socks.

JUNE 2, 2011 / THE INDEPENDENT