

Army Trail students bid adieu with blooms

Army Trail students in Mr. Canchola's 5th grade class gave a good-bye gift to their elementary school last week by planting 30 perennials, donated by Caputo's in Addison, around the bases of a number of trees on the school grounds. These students will be attending Indian Trail Junior High School next August.

courtesy photos

