

courtesy photo

District 4 safety patrols receive training

Last week, 76 Addison elementary school students who will be serving on their school's Safety Patrols went through a morning training session at Indian Trail Junior High. Addison Police Officer Omar Brucal conducted the training along with support from Officers Maria Hernandez and Danielle Peterson. The students learned what their responsibilities will be and practiced the procedures that will be used to assist in keeping other students safe throughout the school year.