

Park Dist., PTA event will benefit literacy efforts

ADDISON — The Addison Park District is teaming with the Addison Council PTA (ACPTA) on a family fun event, Putting for Pages, on Saturday, November 5 and Sunday, November 6 at Putter's Peak, 950 W. Lake St.. Community members are invited and encouraged to attend this fundraiser which is being held to support literacy projects for District 4 students. Last year, ACPTA helped to support a program where books were mailed to every 2nd grade student throughout the summer months in an effort to keep children reading outside the school year.

In an effort to support literacy efforts like this and raise additional funds, Geri Estvanik playing mini-golf. The Park District is opening Putters Peak to give community members the chance to get in one last round of mini-golf for the season, on Saturday, November 5 from 11 a.m. — 8 p.m.; and, Sunday, November 6 from 11 a.m. — 6 p.m.

Guests will receive a token for Culver's frozen custard and a round of mini-golf for $7. A group of 4 golfers will be $25. All funds that are raised will be used to support literacy programs for students. Flyers were sent home with District 4 students with the added incentive that the classroom that brings in the most golfers over the weekend will win a pizza party for