The above list contains brand names that we have found to be of excellent quality. Through combined years of experience we know these particular brands work better and last longer. In the long run, they are money savers.

Additional supply lists maybe sent home by your child's classroom teacher at a later date. Please replenish the supplies as needed.

Thank you for providing quality school supplies for your child. Being prepared will help your child feel important and give him/her a big boost of self-confidence. What a great way to start a new adventure!

Sincerely,
